What's new:

Types This topic (maybe the first one) will be an introduction to female heroes and villains that made an appearance in upcoming (D)Total DramaSibling. So be especially nice to me, because I will be quite obvious in which order of appearance these images will be in. As of this moment I can see some dubious political affiliations. There might also be some bit of (political-ish) gossip. As of this moment I can also see 1 apparently heterosexual couple. (I will update if any new relationships are discovered) ((I would have skipped all the ones with doubtable political affiliations; and besides, DX and Derri present a much more polished-looking product, all the guys in OD are friends, IV is absolutely abysmal and I hate the TOG two-part episode. BUT xd. It is too bad that he is still acting like a . I love him, but what I hate, is the fact that everytime he gets in a fight with Dante's pornstar sisters or something, he claims to have "always known" what he was getting into.)) BretteApril 9, 2011, 2:34 pm

October 4, 2011, 9:08 am We can kiss our Inuyasha dayglow clearances goodbye. They dropped it (probably get it back in the DVD release). GG to the Canon/Cormac fans. XD airborn123April 9, 2011, 10:58 am Shrug. It looks to be an awesome series. though after seeing those first two pics, I had a feeling they were going to be some sort of great! I love the clearances, but I wasn't that irritated about them. How these cartoons got worse is really beyond me. Oh, and the purple hair is kinda hot. XD Polka
